Letter from Pat

Dear Friends,

When I look back at this year, I am amazed at how much we've achieved, but I'm not surprised. Society members are among the most compassionate, generous, and hard-working people I've ever met. Believe me, I've met a lot of people! We are really making a difference in the lives of others; from scholarship recipients, to teachers, to breast cancer support groups and research, to food pantries, to shelters, to support for our soldiers, and many, many more.

It is a joy getting to spend time with you at shows and fundraisers and hearing about the work you are doing for others. I feel that we are kindred spirits, and I am grateful for all that you do.

As we approach the holidays, I want to say thank you for keeping the spirit of Christmas alive for so many throughout the entire year!

Love,

Pat working with a classroom of students on board the U.S.S. Intrepid Sea, Air, and Space Museum in New York City on October 5. More on this story on page 4.

2011 Annual Christmas Print and Pat's Snowmen

The subject of this year's Christmas print is a favorite of Pat's and popular among her collectors. True to tradition, Pat's snowmen are magical beings that inhabit a place somewhere between real life and make believe, a place of the imagination where creativity resides. This happy, exuberant snowman in December Welcome is no exception. Just take a look at his smiling face, his head thrown back at a jaunty angle, his arms thrust high. Here is a snowman in motion, enjoying life, not a care in the world. He's virtually human, surrounded by his family, the very people who brought him to life, the center of attention and the focus of their adoration.

Pat's snowmen symbolize innocence, the creative spirit, and an intense joy of life. When Pat paints snowmen, she depicts the product of the creative process; she is showing us a work of art. Her snowmen are wonderful creations of indigenous art, in the sense that they are made from local, available materials (snow, sticks, carrots, and pebbles) by artists (the children) with natural, unschooled talent. The snowman is the invention of fertile, juvenile imagination, brought to life. As the mature artist, Pat is reaching back, by experiencing the joy and wonder of the children, to the source of the creative imagination.

In reality, the snowman's existence is fleeting; we all know (particularly as adults) that he's going to melt. But look at Pat's snowman, and you won't get a hint of his ultimate fate. He's so full of life, he appears immortal. This is the artist's triumph over life, creating something everlasting from the temporal. Through the imagery of dance, the vague nod at pagan worship is muted by orderly expression, art arranging nature. At the same time, and most importantly, Pat depicts a family tradition, a pastime that helps cement familial bonds and has a lasting influence on children whose lives are still impressionable.

Foundation Announces 14th Annual Creative Mind Conference

The P. Buckley Moss Foundation for Children's Education is excited to announce its 14th Annual Creative Mind Conference, which will be held on Saturday, April 14, 2012, at the Holiday Inn and Conference Center in Staunton, Virginia. The theme will be "Reach 'em to Teach 'em: Engaging Students Who Learn Differently", and the fee is $90. Participants will earn eight hours of re-certification points for Virginia teacher licensure (graduate continuing education credits available for an additional fee).

Featured speakers include:

- Ron Nash, author of the Corwin Press bestseller The Active Class- room and his latest book From Seatwork to Feetwork.

- Dr. Deborah Carrington, Professor of Education at James Madison University, who focuses on development of creativity in the classroom.
- Dr. Mwizenge Tembo, Professor of Sociology at Bridgewater College and nationally acclaimed African storyteller.
- Dr. John Almarode, Education Professor at James Madison University and international presenter on how the student brain learns and how we can use that knowledge in our classrooms.

SPONSOR A TEACHER:

If you or your chapter are looking for a worthy recipient of your giving program, consider sponsoring a local teacher to attend the conference. With ever-increasing cutbacks in education funding, there are fewer resources available to teachers to help cover the costs of their continuing education. Teachers attending the conference not only have to pay the $90 fee, but also travel and accommodation expenses. Your donation will benefit both the teacher in your own school district and the Foundation.

For more information, please contact the Foundation office at 540-932-1728 or e-mail foundation@mossfoundation.org

Year-Long Quilt Raffle to Benefit the Foundation

The P. Buckley Moss Foundation for Children's Education and the P. Buckley Moss Museum in Waynesboro, Virginia, have just started a year-long fundraising raffle for the Foundation. Gwen Sinclair of Bellevue, Nebraska, made an exquisite quilt around one of Pat's hand-painted fabric centerpieces, which will be on display at the Museum from October 24, 2011, through December 4, 2012. Gwen says of the quilt, which is titled Sweet Companion, "I believe color makes the quilt! I chose the pattern of circle dance for the quilt because of the movement of Pat's drawing and it looks ethereal. I have been quilting for twenty years, and I love the challenge in color and design." Tickets are one for $1.00 or six for $5.00. Checks should be made payable to the P. Buckley Moss Foundation for Children's Education. For more information, or to order tickets, please contact either the Foundation (152 P. Buckley Moss Drive, Waynesboro, VA 22980; 540-932-1728) or the Museum (150 P. Buckley Moss Drive, Waynesboro, VA 22980; 540-949-6473 or 1-800-343-8643).

This beautiful quilt, designed and stitched by Gwen Sinclair of Bellevue, NE, is hanging from the balcony in the foyer of the P. Buckley Moss Museum in Waynesboro, VA. It will be on display from October 24, 2011, to December 4, 2012, and will be the prize of a raffle to benefit the P. Buckley Moss Foundation for Children's Education. For more information on the raffle, please contact either the Foundation office at 540-932-1728 or the Museum at 540-949-6473 or 1-800-343-8643.

A Month in the Life of Pat

Most of you can guess that Pat is a very busy person, but you may not realize just how busy her fall schedule is. To give you an idea, we've decided to show you her October schedule in pictures. More detail is available on the web at <http://www.pbuckleymoss.com/pbminpictures.html>.

October 1, Hanover, PA

October 5, U.S.S. Intrepid, New York City

Pat spoke to over 250 students on board the U.S.S. Intrepid as part of the Intrepid Sea, Air, and Space Museum's Power of One Program.

Pat was the lead speaker for the Museum's Disabilities Awareness Month.

October 7, Waynesboro, VA

Students from Berkeley Glenn Elementary, Westwood Hills Elementary, Wenonah Elementary, and William Perry Elementary Schools in Waynesboro visited with Pat at the Museum in the morning and took a tour.

October 13-15, Omaha, NE

October 21-22, Waynesville, OH

Show at Canada Goose Gallery. Pat walked with 130 others to benefit breast cancer awareness and research. She was the guest of honor at a fundraising dinner and auction for Green-eBucs, a non-profit organization which provides trykes for children with disabilities (Zoe Erickson poses on hers, above).

October 28-29, Kalona, IA

Show at Village Shoppe and fundraising dinner and auction organized by the Moss Country Friends Chapter, at which over $8,300 was raised for various causes.

What did you do in October?

Letters

[To the P. Buckley Moss Society:]

School has gone well this semester. Classes continue to get more challenging, but I guess that is how it should be. I continue to be so grateful for their [Foundation's] financial support. Cost continue [sic] to climb and that truly makes a big difference. I tell Ms. Moss's story often. Most recently, I was asked to speak at a forum on learning disabilities honoring November as "Learning Disabilities Awareness Month". I did not know that they had one. (haha) I was proud to tell what a difference Ms. Moss has made in the perception of a student with a learning difference. Her celebrity was already appreciated by many in attendance, but the crowd was moved by her dedication to make a difference in the education of those that have been challenged as she was.

I continue to find my professors are great and seem intrigued by how I actually learn. They see my success and it baffles them. I really have never known any other way so whatever is "normal"—my way is to me.

Taylor

(an excerpt from an e-mail from Taylor Bohon, 2010 recipient of the Anne and Matt Harbison Scholarship)

I still have the drawing you did of me as a child framed when you came to speak to us. I have severe learning difficulties but you really inspired me and showed me that even though we have challenges we can succeed in life. The scetch [sic] you did of me took all of a minute to complete but the impact you made has lasted a lifetime.

It's wonderful people like you who change the world. I'm honored to have met you and have a scetch [sic] you did of me.

Thank you for everything,

Bryan Martin

To The P. Buckley Moss Foundation:

I wanted to express my sincere gratitude for the scholarship award that I received from your organization. Your generous support is helping me pursue a Master's degree and teaching licensure in Special Education at the University of Oregon.

My first term went well and I'm excited to enter the schools during my practicum study this fall.

Thanks again for your support and for the important work that you do for children's education.

Kind Regards,

Andrew Dempsey-Karp

(Recipient of the 2011 Judith Cary Leadership Memorial Scholarship)

A new record of $6,100 for a P. Buckley Moss quilt was achieved at auction during Pat's visit to Canada Goose Gallery in Waynesville, OH. This extraordinary quilt consists of 9 squares painted by Pat and stitched by Marian Gebele of Beaver Creek, OH. Are you looking to quilt a Moss painting for your charitable organization? Call us at (800) 430-1320 to find out more information. Successful applicants share proceeds between their organization and the P. Buckley Moss Foundation.

Facebook Fun

January, 2012, is P. Buckley Moss Facebook month. Take your picture in front of your favorite Moss artwork and use it as your profile picture for at least one week in January. Post your picture to the P. Buckley Moss Fan Club page, and we will enter your name in a drawing. The winner will receive a $25 gift certificate to be used on the P. Buckley Moss website.

In a future issue of the Sentinel we will feature a collage of Facebook profile pictures.

Chapters Continue Charity Efforts, Activities

FRIENDS MEETING Chapter (Waynesville, OH) assisted GreeneBucs, a local chapter of National AMBUCS™, Inc., which is a non-profit service organization dedicated to creating mobility and independence for children and adults with disabilities, in applying for a Moss print from the Society and raffling it. The framed Savannah in Spring raised $1,291, and the winners were Alan and Sue Eakle of Xenia, Ohio. The framing was donated by Canada Goose Gallery of Waynesville, Ohio.

LAKE MARBURG MOSS Chapter (Hanover, PA) held a Longaberger® Basket Lotto the month of July, which generated a profit of $2,000, all of which was donated to the Martin's Gallery Scholarship Fund in honor of P. Buckley Moss. The Chapter also held a Vera Bradley Lotto the month of October, which generated a profit of $3,750, which will also be donated to the Martin's Gallery Scholarship Fund in honor of P. Buckley Moss. For their Christmas project, Chapter members are collecting gift cards to help two young women who have been abandoned by their mother and who is evicting them from her house on which they were making her mortgage payments.

MOSS AT THE LAKE Chapter (Moneta, VA) provided a $500 scholarship to Trish Walker, a Franklin County High School graduate.

MOSS COUNTRY FRIENDS Chapter (Kalona, IA) hosted a fundraising dinner and auction in conjunction with Pat's show at the Village Shoppe, which raised over $8,300. The Chapter will use the funds raised to purchase a Gate Trainer for a little Amish girl in the area, assist with medical bills for another young girl in the area, and purchase a CD player and books-on-CD for Mid-Prairie High School. Of the amount raised, $4,650 of it was achieved through the auction of two quilts made around Pat's hand-painted centerpieces. The quilters were Pearl Yoder and Barb Greene. The quilt auction proceeds will be divided equally between the Chapter for its charities and the P. Buckley Moss Foundation for Children's Education.

Moss Country Friends and the Village Shoppe auctioned these two quilts. On the left, Judy and Leland Roe of Ames, IA, were the winning bidders on this John Deere quilt, painted by Pat and stitched by Pearl Yoder. On the right, Barb and Steve Greene won the horse quilt, stitched by Barb. Steve couldn't let it go to someone else.

Also during the dinner, a raffle drawing was held, and the raffle proceeds of $1,050 will be used to purchase iPads for Keota (Iowa) Elementary School's Reading and Math Program. The top prize of the raffle was a remarked Spring at Mabry Mill, which had been donated by the Society. The framing was donated by the Village Shoppe. The lucky winner was Janet Michaels of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

MOSS HEAVEN Chapter (Ottumwa, IA) held a fundraising dinner and auction in conjunction with Pat's show at M & J Art & Frame Gallery in Ottumwa, Iowa. The event was held at the Indian Hills Community College and grossed $3,690 between the dinner, the live auction, and the silent auction.

Chapter President Karen Holt made a quilted wall hanging around one of Pat's hand-painted fabric centerpieces for the auction, and it brought in $900 toward the total proceeds for the evening. One-half of the proceeds from the auction of the quilt will be donated to the P. Buckley Moss Foundation for Children's Education. The rest of the proceeds from the event will help fund the Chapter's scholarship to the Indian Hills Community College and help support the Keokuk County Hospice.

MOSS IN THE NEW RIVER VALLEY Chapter (Dublin, VA) held a silent auction during its September meeting and raised $365. The money was donated to a local hospice house, The Beulah House in Dublin.

MOSS IN THE VALLEY Chapter (Roanoke, VA) assisted Hope Tree Family Services (Virginia Baptist Children's Home) in applying to the Society for a Moss print to raffle during its Total raised for charity in these chapter reports is well over $42,357.03! Outstanding!

September fundraising event. Childhood Memories, the framing for which was donated by Frame Connection in Salem, Virginia, raised $268 and was won by Michael Rector.

Chapter members also filled more than thirty bags containing women's personal care items and ten buckets of items especially for children and delivered them to The Turning Point Shelter.

MOSS ON THE CHESAPEAKE

Chapter (Mathews, VA) held a silent auction among its membership for a framed Vigilant Trio. The print was donated by the Society, and the framing was donated by Chapter President Dr. Linda Wilson and her husband Col. Stephen Wilson. The Chapter donated the proceeds of $70 to the P. Buckley Moss Foundation for Children's Education to be used for its Creative Mind Conference in April, 2012.

MOSS REFLECTIONS Chapter (Cedar Rapids, IA) donated $300 to the Homeless Children's Trust.

MOSS SHOWS CHILDREN Chapter (Independence, MO) donated $250 to the Backsnack Program through NKC St. James Lutheran Church and $451.03 to teacher Lilla Moore from Grundy County R5 School District in Trenton, Missouri, for much needed school supplies. Chapter members also collected and embellished books for the Children's Center for the Visually Impaired in Kansas City, Missouri.

PAT'S LAMBS Chapter (Chicago, IL) donated $45 to Equestrian Connection, a therapeutic riding program in Lake Forest, Illinois.

PAT'S WESTERN IOWA FRIENDS Chapter (Carroll, IA) donated $50 to a local Relay for Life Rally.

THREE RIVERS MOSS Chapter (Pittsburgh, PA) raised $742 through a bake sale, a Fund Calendar, a Christmas gift auction, and member dues. The Three pieces of Moss art, Shenandoah Sentry, Spring Comes to the Clifton Mill, and a Moss quilt, helped raise $17,777 for the Flory Family Benefit held September 18, 2011, by the Trees of Life Chapter in Defiance, OH. Shown displaying the pieces are L. to R.: Marlene Huber, owner of The Corner Gallery, Archbold, OH; Carol Breese; and Deb Weisgerber, President of the Trees of Life Chapter.

Chapter will donate $500 to a local 8-year-old boy undergoing treatment for leukemia.

The Chapter assisted the Three Rivers Adoption Council (TRAC) with a raffle, which generated $1,700 for the Adoption Council. Chapter members are also collecting unwrapped articles to be placed in a TRAC bag, which will be given to a child at the time of adoption during the court/counseling sessions.

TREES OF LIFE Chapter (Defiance, OH) held a unique and very successful benefit for a local family on September 18. The recipient was the family of Matt and Jina Flory. Jina passed away earlier this year from cancer at the age of forty, leaving behind a husband and four children. The benefit was called "Defiance Has Talent and Heart" and had an American Idol theme. There were sixteen entries (fourteen vocalists, one dance group, and the local football team that included Jina's son), and the crowd of 550 people got to "vote" by placing money in a bucket for their favorite entertainer. The "winner" was the person collecting the most in donations. The show was hosted by a local radio celebrity and also included an extensive hors d'oeuvre buffet.

The Chapter held a silent auction of items donated by local businesses, held a 50/50 drawing, and sold raffle tickets on their October Prize-a-Day calendar, which included two P. Buckley Moss giclées (donated by the P. Buckley Moss Society and framed by The Corner Gallery of Archbold, OH), Vera Bradley items, hand-crafted items, gift baskets, and gift cards. The Chapter also auctioned a gorgeous quilted wall hanging that featured one of Pat's hand-painted fabric centerpieces and was designed and stitched by Chapter member Cindy Knotts of Xenia, OH. The winning bid for the quilt ($2,500) was placed by Chapter President Deb Weisgerber, and the second place bidder donated an additional $1,000. A donation of $1,500 by Thrivent Financial for Lutherans brought the grand total for the evening to $17,777! This event brought the total raised by Trees of Life in its twenty years to over $114,700!

WESTERN RESERVE Chapter (Cortland, OH) collected items for Someplace Safe, a shelter for battered women in Trumbull County, Ohio. Items included laundry detergent, paper products, diapers, crayons and coloring books, puzzles, hand soap, personal items, cereal and other boxed food, and clothing.

Upcoming Shows with Pat

Pat will appear at the following galleries during the next few months to meet her collectors and sign purchases of her work. These galleries will have an expanded inventory of prints and originals, and they work hard to make each event enjoyable. This schedule is subject to change at any time. Please call the galleries for show details.

Commemorative Brick Walkway Update

The Society's Commemorative Brick Walkway was dedicated on July 16, 1999, not only as a beautiful addition to the grounds at the P. Buckley Moss Museum, but also as a unique way for people to honor someone who has touched their lives. Proceeds from the commemorative bricks benefit the P. Buckley Moss Endowed Scholarship of the P. Buckley Moss Foundation for Children's Education.

The Foundation has made a list of all the commemorative bricks in each of the eight sections of the walkway. The alphabetical list of recipient bricks designates in which of the eight sections the brick(s) can be found. The list will be available at the receptionist's desk of the Museum.

For more information or to order a commemorative brick, please contact the Society office at 1-800-430-1320 or (804) 725-7378.
