SPRING 2015

MISSION STATEMENT

The Society's mission is to foster appreciation of the art of P. Buckley Moss, to promote charitable endeavors consistent with her ideals, and to promote the use of the arts in special education.

Letter from Pat

Dear Friends,

What a wonderful year we have ahead! My 2015 show schedule is already filled, and elsewhere in this issue you will find a list of the show dates. You will also read about the new members-only items for this year.

I am enjoying my studio this winter at my lake house in Radford, Virginia. While we haven't had anywhere as much snow as New England, it has still been cold and snowy enough for me to want to stay in. Of course, I love to paint—my good excuse, so life is good!

I would like to thank all our wonderful chapters for the amazing work you do on behalf of others. I am blessed to know so many people who truly care. Karen Holt, long-time President of the Moss Heaven Chapter, was one of those people, and I was very sad to learn of her passing on December 19. Karen was a dear, dear friend. I remember many years ago I bought a pie safe in Iowa and had no way of bringing it home with me, as I had flown there. Karen said that she and her husband Ronne were planning a road trip to Virginia in a few months and offered to bring it with them. They drove with that huge pie safe all the way to Waynesboro!

Working in my studio.

Bless Ronne and Karen's wonderful family. When their daughter Kristi and her husband wanted to adopt a child, they adopted three boys—just couldn't separate the brothers! Their hearts are overflowing with love, and Ronne is a loving grandfather for the boys. His eyes shine when he talks about them and shares pictures. Karen's love and warmth will live on through her family.

Love to you all,

We are pleased to announce a new bead for 2015 members who join or renew at the Premier or Choice membership levels. The bead for 2015 features one of Pat's trademark horses, cast in sterling silver, and the reverse of the bead again features Pat's "Moss" signature logo. The bead is made in the United States by the same master jeweler who made our first two beads; and, like those, it is designed to fit the bracelets of popular bead manufacturers like Pandora. It may also be worn on a necklace.

The Noble Steed bead is available to members who join or renew (continued)

2015 Adult and Junior Members-Only Prints

For this year's Adult Members-Only Print, Pat has chosen to revisit a cherished childhood memory. Oh, the fun of playing in a pile of freshly raked fall leaves! Pat has depicted the family home in her classic Valley Style, surrounded by sentinel trees resplendent in their fall glory. The parents are diligently raking and gathering leaves, while the children play mischievously in the pile of leaves behind them. The contrasts of work and play, adults and children, and the sheltering house and the outdoors provide a feeling of balance and "grounding" and emphasize the bond of family. Fall Fun showers us with happy memories and life lessons.

For the Junior Members-Only Print Pumpkin Patch Parade, Pat has given a twist to the traditional hayride, with children sitting in a wagon filled with pumpkins. A festive feel has been added with the addition of patriotic flags, one of Pat's favorite symbols.

The P. Buckley Moss Foundation for Children's Education is pleased to announce the recipients for the 2014 Moss Foundation Grants. The grant monies will be used for the 2015 school year. These five grants will further programs to provide educational opportunities through the arts to children who learn differently. The total amount of these awards is $3,598.98.

Teacher: Renata James
North Lauderdale Educational Center,
Pembroke Pines, FL

Sensory Tactile Art Curriculum: $875.00

Children learn to express their ideas as they investigate a variety of media beyond crayons, watercolor, and finger paints. Their investigations in the creative art process involve all of their senses in hands-on experiences in clay, paint, inks, collage, and puppetry. Sticky, slippery, gooey, heavy, bumpy—that's what sensory experiences are made of.

Teacher: Denyse Cohen
Sallye B. Mathis School, Jacksonville, FL
Incorporating the Arts with Literacy: $613.98

The purpose of this program is to enhance and strengthen literacy through the development of an illustrated book. Students will explore language and vocabulary to write a story and create drawings, paintings, or diagrams to illustrate their story, making it easier to understand. Copies of the final book will be printed and added to the school library.

Teacher: T. D. James-Moss
Royal Live Oaks Academy of Arts and Science, Hardeeville, SC
Connecting Countries and Cultures: $856.42

The group mural activity will bring art and culture to life in the art classroom. Students will learn the impact that art can have on communities once they have been a part of that impact.

Teacher: Susan Smith
Eisenhower Middle School, Lawton, OK
Painting through Science: $994.89

Students will learn to paint a scene, an animal, a plant, or something from nature the students will study in science. Students will research the topic, present to peers, and create artist's cards to go along with their paintings. Once all paintings are completed, they will be displayed in the school for students and staff to view and provide positive comments.

Teacher: Hyam Elsharty
Mather High School, Chicago, IL
Integrating the Arts into Mathematics: $258.69

Algebra I students will be introduced to the basic concept of polygons as they prepare for Geometry. Students will create three-dimensional dream catchers through representation and application of at least four polygons, using different colors of yarn and repeating pattern to showcase each polygon, aiding in identifying and classifying polygons.

Highlights from the Society's 2014 Tour

Society members joined Pat and her daughter Patty for the "San Francisco and Wine Country Delights" tour, August 29-September 5, 2014. The tour started in the San Francisco Bay area, and the participants enjoyed seeing Chinatown, Haight-Ashbury, Alcatraz, Sausalito, and Muir Woods. From San Francisco, they traveled by motor coach to Sonoma, where they visited several vineyards. They also took the Wine Train from the Town of Napa to St. Helena, stopping at Rutherford along the way. One of the highlights of the Sonoma portion of the trip was a visit to the Ramekins Culinary School, where the group enjoyed a wine pairing dinner that they prepared themselves with assistance from the school's chefs.

A special thank-you is due to Bonnie-Lou Binnig, President of the Moss Pelicans Chapter, for doing such a wonderful job of coordinating the trip.

San Francisco was originally settled by the native Ohlone people around 10,000 years ago. The first European contact is believed to have been when Sir Francis Drake sailed past the entrance to San Francisco Bay in 1579. The area remained devoid of Europeans until 1775 when the Spanish ventured north on a "Sacred Expedition" led by Gaspar de Portola. The Spanish founded the Presidio Army Base there in 1776, and the roots of the city were planted.

Muir Woods National Park is on the Sausalito side of the Golden Gate Bridge and is the home of coastal redwoods, the largest tree species in the world. Here, Pat and Patty are standing inside the trunk of one of the trees.

Domaine Carneros in Sonoma specializes in sparkling wines, and the group learned about the process for making them.

The Wine Train was one of the group's favorite parts of the tour. They learned about wine and wine making and did some wine tasting, while enjoying the gorgeous scenery of wine country.

The group was especially excited to take a tour of Alcatraz Island, also known as The Rock, which is rumored to be haunted. The federal prison on Alcatraz, located in San Francisco Bay, housed some of the nation's most dangerous felons during its years of operation from 1934 to 1963. No inmate ever successfully escaped from The Rock.

Preparing dinner and learning how to do wine pairing at the Ramekins Culinary School.

The group traveled by motor coach to the Napa Valley for the wine country portion of their trip, pictured here at the V. Sattui Winery in St. Helena, CA.
